

Living with Advanced Cancer

Conversations Around Spirituality & Stage IV

Wednesday, January 16 • 1 to 2:30 p.m.

(Rev.) Dan Sullivan, MA, MDiv, Director of Spiritual Care

Rush Copley Medical Center

Much in life is reexamined after receiving a Stage IV diagnosis. Some things that occupied the past may become less important, while other things become more important. Spirituality may be discovered, rediscovered, or redefined. Please join Rev. Dan Sullivan in reflecting and sharing stories of personal experience.

TLC (Together Living with Cancer) Support Group

Second Tuesdays, January 8, February 12 and March 12 • 10 to 11:30 a.m.

This group is designed to support those living with an advanced or metastatic cancer diagnosis. This group will be facilitated by a Social Worker. This group will begin once 5 participants have registered.

"Five Invitations" Book Discussion

February 28 and March 7, 14, 21, 28 • 3 to 4:30 p.m.

Jan Litvene, ACSW, LCSW

Using the book, Five Invitations by Frank Ostaseki, this 5-week group will explore how an awareness of death can be a valuable companion on the road to living well, forging a rich and meaningful life free of regret. This group is designed for both those in active treatment as well as those who are post treatment for cancer. Books will be available for each registered participant to use during the class. It is recommended that participants read or begin reading the book before the first meeting but not required.

Registration is required for all programs. Register online, by phone or in person.
